Wanda DeLaRosa
Executive Director

Wanda DeLaRosa is the Co-founder and Executive Director of It's All About Kids. Since its inception in 2000, she has applied over 20 years of child development, education and ministerial experience to growing and nurturing an organization committed to providing enrichment programs to children. As a mother who raised two children, Mrs. DeLaRosa experienced the pressures of family life. As a former pastor and educator she counseled many families who struggled to raise their children and provide them with the wholesome education that they needed to be well-rounded and successful.

It's All About Kids was initiated because of Mrs. DeLaRosa's lifelong commitment and desire to assist children and their parents as they struggle through the pressures that families experience in tough economic times. Mrs. DeLaRosa has dedicated her life to public service. Her diverse background in multiple phases of education includes business administration, ministry, missions, early childhood management, cultural awareness and special needs. Wanda has also taught English as a second language to elementary students and served as a Christian educator. She is a national teachers' trainer and, through her mission and outreach work, is a compelling motivational speaker. Mrs. DeLaRosa is active in the community and has been instrumental in the development of several successful ministries and international children's programs.
